- Marilyn Dovey Kasen: "Love the car seat protector. It fits perfectly under the car seat to protect my interior from a toddler's kicking foot and dropped snacks. The storage compartments are an added bonus. This was a good purchase, and its quality makes it a good value.”

Previously, I used a pouch to hold wet wipes for those sticky situations I find myself in.” Customers who will buy this brand new car seat protector mat are given with a lifetime no-hassle free replacement guarantee. Mr. Speight added in one interview, “This luxury car seat protection mat, which will immediately keep your leather or cloth back seat tidy from scrape marks left by your children's feet, unsightly stains or spills, is custom-designed with a super anti-slip backing to stop your child's car seat from slipping.

The representative also describes amongst today's product testimonials, “Other times or your child's car seat leaves unsightly depressions or even scuffs, stains or spillages on the back seat when you take them off, and without the car seat protector in place, you will continue spending money you don't already have,” he said.
